

Mary Woolger of Mile End

Extracted from "East End 1888 A Year in a London Borough Among the Labouring Poor" by W. J. Fishman, published by Hanbury, 2001, ISBN 0954105907

Page 204

"In May, Mary Woolger, aged 20, of 27 St. Thomas's Road, Mile End, disappeared 'on the evening of that day she left home, having previously bidden goodbye to her little brother, saying she was going to drown herself'. Her body was never recovered."